President's Report:

1. The rummage sale is coming up and they are in good shape for the sale.
2. The magazine sale was extended an extra week. The goal was met and there will be a pizza party.
3. This year's golf outing netted $7000, which is split with CYM. We are happy with the result.
4. The last trivia night was not as well attended as in the past. Forty people attended. We would like to do family trivia night in which the kids participating in the event. This would be in addition to the adult only night.
5. Candy cane craft fair: They have spots for 39 vendors and currently have 12 filled. Nancy is very positive that the slots will be filled. The fair is scheduled for Dec 13th. She would like a sandwich board sign, which would cost $150. H&S thinks it would be worth it and gave it a go ahead.
6. The Home and School board closet was cleaned out this past month.
7. There is an up coming board game night which will be held on November 14. Manon Gatford and Erica Galligan are in charge. Home and School will sponsor the milk and water for the evening.

8. There is a Home and School general meeting on Tuesday at 6:30 pm on Oct 27. Brian Mularski will give a presentation on Deskarmor.

Principal's report:

1. Online survey received a reply from three fourths of our families.
2. Katie Andres is the K4 aide for this year. She will work Monday-Thursday and will be paid for with a contribution from the H&S.
3. The students completed the computerized testing. The results will be shared with the parents during their conferences with the teachers. We will do again in January and May. This type of test will show the progress of the student over the year. This testing is still in its developmental stage at our school and we are still working on how this testing information can be best used.
4. Principal's coffee had a turn out of 18 parents.
5. H1N1 vaccine will be available to the North shore health department. They are planning to have a clinic at Nicolet High School on Nov. 7
